HOME COMING FESTIVAL AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Since 1922, the First Christian church of this city has had a remarkable history. George G. Elder, the present pastor says, "It is hard to find so united and willing a people. Because of this, God has constantly blessed the organization and its growth has been phenomenal."

Sunday, October 13th, the Torrance Christian church will conduct a great Home Coming Festival at their present home, Engracia at Arlington, with Evangelist C. C. Root of Anaheim, California, in charge. Mr. Elder says, "People are coming in great numbers from all over the country. Surely friends you will take advantage of this most glorious occasion, and help make history that day."

The day will be marked with many significant events. Beginning at 9:45 sharp, there will be a great rallying attendance in the Bible school with a "feature" program given by the various classes and departments. At 11 o'clock, Evangelist C. C. Root, who conducted the revival services and organized the church some years ago, will preach the "Home Coming" Message. At the noon hour, an old-fashioned basket dinner will be served in the new social hall (annex) of the church. "All members of the church and Bible school, parents and friends, are urged to attend," says Mr. Elder. The evening services will be characterized by a rallying attendance also, at 7:30. Mr. Elder will preach his great sermon-lecture on "The Cloak of Sin—A Challenge to Infidelity." Mr. V. C. Gilbert, a famous banjo soloist of Los Angeles, will play a number of selections.
